

History Question:

For whom is

Griggs

Rec Center

named?

History Question:

For whom is

Griggs

Rec Center

named?

For whom is Griggs
Rec Center
named?

Griggs Recreation Center, and Griggs Street, was named after Chauncey W. Griggs.

Griggs, born in Connecticut in 1832, was a colonel during the Civil War and commanded the 3rd Minnesota Volunteers.

Griggs started a number of businesses locally including lumber, development, grocery wholesale, as well as a partnership with rail baron J.J. Hill, selling coal and freight services. Chauncey Griggs also served in the Minnesota State Senate.

His mansion, at 476 Summit Avenue and built in 1883, has been called “the most haunted house in Minnesota.”

Griggs lived in this house for just a few years before leaving Saint Paul to settle in Tacoma, Washington.

For whom is Griggs
Rec Center
named?

Griggs Recreation Center, and Griggs Street, was named after Chauncey W. Griggs.

Griggs, born in Connecticut in 1832, was a colonel during the Civil War and commanded the 3rd Minnesota Volunteers.

Griggs started a number of businesses locally including lumber, development, grocery wholesale, as well as a partnership with rail baron J.J. Hill, selling coal and freight services. Chauncey Griggs also served in the Minnesota State Senate.

His mansion, at 476 Summit Avenue and built in 1883, has been called “the most haunted house in Minnesota.”

Griggs lived in this house for just a few years before leaving Saint Paul to settle in Tacoma, Washington.